Pastoral Prayer, The Lord's Prayer James Forbes, adapted
Gracious God, You have made your generous love for the poor and the least of these known to us. And through the work of the Holy Spirit, you continue to tear down dividing walls of hostility and inequality that separate us from each other and distort your good news. Too much of our society continues to participate in systems, structures, and cultural patterns that diminish, distort, and destroy the lives of persons of color. Too many are still enslaved to racism, to voter suppression, and efforts to block living wages and health care. In remembering the day that the slaves in Texas finally heard of their emancipation, we continue to cry out to you to end the false religion of white supremacy and white nationalism. Search us, O Lord, and call us into action to bring an end to the injustices that are contrary to your way. Make us one people. Thank you for your mercy and compassion. We offer this prayer that your glory and honor might be known as we pray together, saying, Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever, Amen.

Song of Preparation As the Deer black hymnal #2025

Scripture Reading Galatians 3:23-29 23

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore, the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.
